SUMMARY

Here I'm

Frontend developer with a passion for learning and creating. Proven ability to quickly learn new skills and apply them to build responsive, user-friendly web applications. Expertise in JavaScript, HTML, CSS, React, and Git/GitHub. Eager to contribute to a team of developers and build innovative products. I love applying responsive design principles and watching my web pages shrink into mobile screens and still look amazing. Although I'm now working as a freelance programmer, I'm moldable. But I still keep my creative flare intact.
